

Until further notice, all of our food offerings are carry-out only. We plan to resume in-house dining, wine drinking and classes in 2022, though! (While we have eliminated sandwiches from our menu, we have an excellent selection of personal sized cheese plates, as well as large platters. Please check our "Menu" page for more details.)

We are happy to provide curbside service if you don't wish to come into the store. Do not come into Wine + Market if you have recently been exposed to someone with COVID-19, or if you do not feel well. While masks are preferred, they are not mandatory. We appreciate your understanding.

Sincerely,
the W+M team
